SUBJECT: 2004 Kennedy Space Center (KSC) Environmental and Energy
Awareness Week

The 2004 KSC Environmental and Energy Awareness Week (EEAW) will be held April 20-22. This year's theme is Today's Conservation Defines Tomorrow's Future. Events will include:

- April 20, Opening/Awards Ceremony at 10 a.m. in the Training Auditorium
- April 21, Exhibits from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the O & C Building/front parking lot
- April 22, Exhibits from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the VAB Area/Parking Lot E

The featured speaker for the Opening/Awards Ceremony will be Ms. Joan Deming, Co-Principal and Vice President of Archaeological Consultants, Inc., in Sarasota, Florida. Ms. Deming has over 27 years of cultural resource and archaeological management experience and has experience with archaeological resources at KSC and at Cape Canaveral Air Force Station.

Outdoor EEAW activities, including exhibits, training, demonstrations, tours, and presentations, will take place on April 21 and 22. These activities will focus on KSC environmental successes and opportunities to continue to foster environmental stewardship and energy conservation at KSC. Detailed information on EEAW events and activities will be posted on the KSC EEAW Web site (<http://eeaw.ksc.nasa.gov>).

"Environmental Leadership" is a guiding principle of KSC operations. Preserving our environment for future generations is everyone's responsibility. This is a chance for each of us to renew our commitment and evaluate our activities to ensure a safe and healthy work environment. I strongly encourage you to participate in these events to learn how you can contribute to KSC's environmental stewardship and energy conservation.

If you have any questions on the 2004 KSC EEAW, please call Mr. John Ryan at 867-8413 or Ms. Barbara Naylor at 867-8452.
